AT JACK LONDON SQUARE
JAPANESE RESTAURANT & WORLD CLASS JAZZ HOUSE

presents

Larry Vuckovich Hard Bop Quintet

with a

Dexter Gordon Salute

Pianist Larry Vuckovich had the opportunity to perform with Dexter Gordon in Denmark and in Austria. He witnessed great jazz moments through Dexter's playing, often hearing his significant historic tenor lineage that paid homage to Prez and Bird. But more importantly, Dexter's powerful, original tenor style always emerged in the forefront of his playing. Dexter was the first to translate Charlie Parker's bebop alto style to tenor. He is recognized as the major influence on hundreds of bebop tenor players, including such jazz icons as Sonny Rollins and John Coltrane. Monday's engagement will present many of Dexter's memorable melodic compositions in a hard bop quintet format. Don't miss this finger- poppin' event.
