A HOT, SWINGING AFTERNOON:

MUSIC OF BENNY GOODMAN and ARTIE SHAW

with a touch of

DUKE ELLINGTON and COUNT BASIE

Larry Vuckovich's Benny Goodman Tribute Sextet will perform some stimulating selections from Benny Goodman's 1938 famous Carnegie Hall concert, as well as some of the great hits from the orchestras of Artie Shaw, Duke Ellington and Count Basie. This program highlights selections from one of the great eras in jazz – music which is timeless. Larry Vuckovich's Benny Goodman Tribute Sextet recently sold out the Robert Mondavi Winery concert. The musicians in this ensemble are world-class, players that have toured and performed with famous bands throughout the USA and Europe.

In addition to Larry on piano, the sextet features the outstanding clarinetist Noel Jewkes, in the role of BG; swinging vibraphonist, Tommy Kesecker, paying tribute to Lionel Hampton; soulful, guitarist Jeff Massanari, in the role of Charlie Christian, and the hard-driving rhythm section of Jeff Chambers and Leon Joyce.
